

Homeless Persons' Interfaith Memorial Service

Wednesday, December 21, 2016 at 6:00 pm
in front of San Jose City Hall
200 East Santa Clara St., San Jose

An interfaith memorial service, featuring leaders from the diverse religious traditions of the South Bay, honoring the lives of people who died homeless in our community in 2016

Sponsored by the Silicon Valley Interreligious Council

Then immediately after the memorial service...

...join us directly across the street at 7:15p at San Jose First United Methodist Church (24 N. 5th St) for refreshments and:

“The Gift of Hospitality” A short documentary film told by guests, volunteers, and faith leaders of the Winter Faith Collaborative— a growing network of faith communities in the South Bay who are providing the unhoused with daytime drop-in centers, overnight shelters and safe car parks.

Homeless Persons' Interfaith Memorial Service

Wednesday, December 21, 2016 at 6:00 pm
in front of San Jose City Hall
200 East Santa Clara St., San Jose

An interfaith memorial service, featuring leaders from the diverse religious traditions of the South Bay, honoring the lives of people who died homeless in our community in 2016

Sponsored by the Silicon Valley Interreligious Council

Then immediately after the memorial service...

...join us directly across the street at 7:15p at San Jose First United Methodist Church (24 N. 5th St) for refreshments and:

“The Gift of Hospitality” A short documentary film told by guests, volunteers, and faith leaders of the Winter Faith Collaborative—the growing network of faith communities in the South Bay who are providing the unhoused with daytime drop-in centers, overnight shelters and safe car parks.